WITH THE CANOE.

Efforts are being made by some of the Passaic River canoeists to bring about a match race between the club fours of the Orange and Lantz Canoe Clubs. The Lantz crew held the championship of the river for three years, but was defeated three times in as many days at the Passaic meet a few weeks ago. They were caught napping, as they presumed on their experience and had not trained for the meet. On this account they express a willingness to try it again. The Orange men will doubtless be glad to accommodate them, as they little fear after three such sweeping victories as they achieved at the meet.

War canoe racing is not only apparently occupying the entire attention of the canoeists in New England, but is attracting a wonderful amount of public attention. The recent races of the Passaic River were witnessed by a crowd of several thousand persons. The prize boat over $500, and contained a silver cup each the last annual winners of the winning crew and a silk banner which alone cost $125. Five crews started, two

DRESS GOODS.

Autumn Materials in Increased Variety.

Among the popular materials for Autumn and Winter wear Broadcloths occupy a leading place. We have them in the new shades, in reliable qualities, from $1.00 to $1.50, of American make, and from $1.50 to $3.00 of foreign make.

Rough finish, imported fabrics, in plain colors in Boucle, Bourette, Niggerhead, Frieze, and Sandler Cloth are much in demand for stylish Walking Suits. Our prices for the best makes range from $1.00 to $2.50.

We are showing a choice line of Fancy Vestings for ladies' wear.

AS UNDERPRICE SPECIALS

In popular goods we offer:
50 pieces pure wool Henrietta, 38 inches wide, in a full line of seasonable colors, including all the evening shades and creams, at 29 cts. per yard; a month ago the price was 50 cts.

40 pieces 45-inch all-wool Suitings, in neat dark heather mixtures—free wool price, 39 cts.; former price 59 cts.

BLACK DRESS GOODS.

The increased demand for black for general wear, instead of mourning, has caused us to largely extend this department, and a most complete assortment of staple and novelty fabrics will be found in stock.

Two specials under price are 38-inch all-wool Cashmere, in jet and fine black, at 29 cts. instead of 50 cts., and 38-inch Armure Crepon, in jet black, at 49 cts. instead of 75 cts.
